

WHITE PLAINS HOSPITAL CENTER FOR CANCER CARE AND MONTEFIORE EINSTEIN CENTER FOR CANCER CARE PRESENT

UPDATES IN TREATMENT OF HEAD AND NECK CANCER

Advances in the diagnosis and treatment of head and neck cancer in the past two decades have significantly improved patients' prognosis, as well as their functional and cosmetic outcomes. Updates in Treatment of Head and Neck Cancer, a continuing medical education event hosted by White Plains Hospital Center for Cancer Care and Montefiore Einstein Center for Cancer Care, is an overview of current therapies and patient support presented by our multi-disciplinary panel of experts.

Topics will include: molecular tumor testing • targeted therapies and immunotherapies
• advanced surgical approaches to treat larynx, oropharynx and skull-based tumors
• curative and palliative applications of proton therapy and conventional radiation
• promising clinical trials • rehabilitative, palliative and supportive care to help restore patients' function and abilities.
